Our Mission

Our camp mission is to provide a complete, in-depth basketball experience. We emphasize teamwork, defense, and fundamentals. We will challenge you athletically to reach your potential. More importantly, we will challenge you spiritually to live for Christ.

Meet the Staff

Kevin Templeton is one of the most respected Christian coaches in the Southeast. He has 34 years of coaching experience—26 years in high school and 8 years in college. During his coaching tenure at Tennessee Temple University, the 2002–2003 TTU squad went 30–4 and won Temple’s seventh NCCAA title. Coach T’s passion is speaking to kids about character and leadership, and he is the author of the new book To the Hilt. Coach T has a reason for coaching above and beyond winning games, which is to influence kids to live for Christ.

Tommy Brown is the head men’s basketball coach at Lee University. In his very first season at Lee, Brown led the Flames to the SSAC regular season and tournament championships. Since being at Lee, he’s taken 8 straight teams to the NAIA National Tournament. They are now in the NCAA Division II. He is also a director for several PGC camps in the summer and is a great resource in our coach and camper clinics.

Marty Rowe is the head women’s basketball coach at Lee University. He has led the Lady Flames to nine consecutive appearances in the NAIA National Tournament. In 2006, he was awarded NAIA National Coach of the Year. In 2010, the Lady Flames finished in the semifinals, and in 2013, they were in the title game of the NAIA National Tournament. In 2014, they advanced to the finals of the NCAA DII National Tournament.

Josh Templeton is the head boys basketball coach at St Benedicts Academy in Memphis, TN. A two-time NCCAA All-American, his point guard clinic is a highlight for all. He connects with young people and can teach the game in a way that helps each camper improve. He also directs several PGC camps in the summer, and his specialties are player development and helping to develop the offense.

David Casteel, “V,” is a tremendous asset to the coaches and campers. He is the go-to person for the schedule. For any problems or changes you may want to be made in the game schedule, “V” is the one to see. He has coached basketball on several different levels at high school, and his passion is helping each camper and coach have a great week at camp.
